Letter text:

[fol. 224v] Belgia 1582 21 Aprill B

Coronell Steward is trobled by his Regyment here, whose captaynes have exhibited supplicatyons agaynst hym, & mene to be discharged of his governement, & to be assured of their mony Received by hym. he ys towched latelye with fowller crymes, which hinders his jorney into scotland & perplexeth hym allso otherwise./

We say playnlye here, & so do lres of credite owtt of fraunce, that the K. will nott meddell with his brothers actyons nor with these contryes./ The P. of Orengs wound, was made nothyng to the frenche K. by the repport from hence, to the end he sholld nott be discourayged to joyne with his Brother.

Ytt is well conffirmed that the K of Sp: hath mony in Redynes att Gene & in Venyce to make his sowdyors marche, & that daylye grett Trowpes do arryve into Luxemburgh./
