Letter text:

[fol. 19r] In humble wise may yt please your H. to be advertised that my verey good L the Earle of Derby and the other knights appointed to deale in the affaires of Christs Colledge in Manchester, have taken some paines to some good purpose: for by their wise and gentle dealing many of the Tenants are verey reasonable and iij Towne shippes small though they bee have surrendred the Leases of their Tythes frelie to the use of the Colledge for the Maintenance of Hospitalitie. dyverse Gentlemen have the rest in lease, who, I am affraid, though their title be no better, will not yeeld so easilie. my L of Derby and the other Comissioners will also deale with them at further leasure. In the meane tyme Masterr deane of Paules will make a motion to your H. for Master Hearle, that the Colledge might be dycharged of his pencion, for the revenewes will not in ani wise beare yt.
